Office of the Legislative Counsel

Wednesday - 15 May 1963

1. (Unclassified - JSW) Talked with Congressman John Brademas concerning his suggestion to Cord Meyer that Brademas and a few other Congressmen meet with the Director to learn more about the Agency and the intelligence community. In suggesting that the group might come to the Agency, Brademas indicated that, of course, there were the time problems and eventually suggested a breakfast meeting at about 8:30 on either of three days - 3, 4, or 5 June. I said I would try to firm this up and let him know.
